

DEFENSE LOGISTICS AGENCY
HEADQUARTERS
8725 JOHN J. KINGMAN ROAD
FORT BELVOIR, VIRGINIA 22060-6221

IN REPLY
REFER TO GENERAL ORDER
NO: 4-07

MAR 3 2007

I. AUTHORITY: Approval of the Director, Defense Logistics Agency (DLA).

II. REFERENCES:

- A. Director's Special Message – Moving Forward, dated October 18, 2006.
- B. Headquarters (HQ) General Order (GO) No. 4-02, dated July 14, 2002, Changes to DLA's Logistics Operations (J-3).
- C. HQ GO No. 8-00, dated September 5, 2000, Establishment of J-3.

III. Pursuant to the cited authority, and effective March 4, 2007, Acquisition Management (J-7) is established. The J-7 Director reports to the DLA Director and is the staff principal responsible for the development, application, and oversight of DLA acquisition policy, plans, programs, operations, and functional systems. The J-7 Director also serves as the Agency's senior procurement and component acquisition executive. J-7 is established from missions, functions, personnel, and resources from the Logistics Operations (J-3), Acquisition, Technical, and Supply Directorate (J-33), established in HQ GO No. 8-00, the Acquisition Division (J-331), established in HQ GO No. 8-00, and the Competitive Sourcing Branch (J-374), established in HQ GO No. 4-02.

A. J-7 establishes the following subordinate divisions. The specific roles, missions, and functions of which are detailed in the attachment.

- i. The Acquisition Policy Division (J-71) is established and is responsible for providing procurement policy direction to DLA contracting offices.
- ii. The Acquisition Operations Division (J-72) is established and is responsible for supporting the Agency Competition Advocate, reviewing field contracting initiatives and performance, and providing staff surveillance over procurement operations at specified sites and programs.
- iii. The Procurement Integrity and Pricing Division (J-73) is established and is responsible for providing oversight and direction to all DLA contracting activities in the establishment and execution of a procurement system and overseeing development and implementation of contract pricing policies and practices.
- iv. The Acquisition Programs and Industrial Capabilities Division (J-74) is established and is responsible for providing oversight and direction for Agency acquisition programs to include Supplier Relationship Management, Performance Based Logistics, as well as the Industrial Capabilities (IC) and Warstopper programs.
- v. The Competitive Sourcing Division (J-75) is established and is responsible for administering DLA's strategic and competitive sourcing program under the Office of Management and Budget Circular A-76.

vi. The Business Office Division (J-76) is established and is responsible for business management, strategic planning, program assessment, program budget review, operations, personnel management, financial and personnel resource and requirements management, and directorate administrative management.

vii. The Defense Acquisition Regulations (DAR) Council Representative (J-7) is established and is responsible for serving as the DLA Policy Member to the DAR Council.

B. J-331 and J-374 are disestablished.

IV. Administrative services and support will be performed by the J-7 Business Office.

FOR THE DIRECTOR:

PATRICK J. DULIN

Director

DLA Enterprise Support